

Warren Bradey – Chief Executive Officer

Warren Bradey is the Chief Executive Officer & a Director of the newly launched Smart Services CRC.

Warren has over 20 years experience in the area of commercialising early stage research and technology and venture capital investment.

Prior to joining Smart Services Warren was the General Manager of Access ANSTO and Managing Director of Unisearch, the commercialisation arms of ANSTO and UNSW, where he helped to build significant collaborative service businesses based on the unique strengths of the researchers and specialised equipment at the university. This included oversight of a technology investment fund which invested over $7m in 18 new projects and managed the listing of three new companies on the stock exchange, creating over 60 new jobs in those businesses.

Warren has been a director and strategic leader of 8 start-up companies, which include the on-line English language business, Planet Learning Pty Ltd (listed through ISIS Communications), social messaging business Keep in Touch Pty Limited and the quantum computing business, Qucor Pty Limited. He has also been an Executive Director of the listed biofilm business Biosignal Limited (BOS), the mammalian cell expression company, Acyte Biotech Pty Limited, and the anti-angiogenesis company Systemix Pty Limited.

Prior to Unisearch, Warren was a General Partner in the early stage development capital investment group, Capital Formation Group, which provided funds and strategic advice to small cap start-up businesses, including the management buy-out and subsequent listing of Citect Limited (CTL). Warren's investment background also includes working with the Australian Industry Development Corporation during the establishment of its equity investment arm. He specialised in valuation techniques and acted as an investment analyst in a period which saw AIDC funds under management grow to over $3 billion.

Warren's professional qualifications include a Master of Business Administration, Bachelor of Economics, Chartered Accountant and Fellow of the Institute of Company Directors.

www.smartservicescrc.com.au

